

University of MOUNT OLIVE

A Ministry of Original Free Will Baptists

Fast Facts

- Founded by the Convention of Original Free Will Baptists in 1951
- In 2014, the name was changed to the University of Mount Olive
- Today we have seven locations in eastern North Carolina:
 - Mount Olive (1954)
 - Seymour Johnson Air Force Base (1975)
 - New Bern (1993)
 - Wilmington (1995)
 - Research Triangle Park (1997)
 - Washington (2005)
 - Smithfield at Johnston Community College (2006)
 - Jacksonville (2009)
- Annually provides more than $8 million in institutional scholarships
- 83% of faculty have terminal degrees
- Served over 4,000 students in 2017-2018
- 5th most affordable private college in North Carolina
- 75% of students come from Eastern North Carolina
- Serve students from 81 counties in North Carolina, 31 states, and 30 foreign countries
- Serve approximately 19,665 alumni

How the University Serves You

Financial Aid:

- Provides grants for licensed and ordained ministerial students
- Provides an annual grant of $3000 to qualified Free Will Baptist students who are enrolled full time in the traditional program at the Mount Olive location
- Provides many other forms of financial assistance as needed